CASE NO. 08 cr 0681-W

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF MOTIONS FOR:
(1) DISCOVERY;
(2) SUPPRESS STATEMENTS
(3) LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER
MOTIONS

Date: April 23, 2008
Time: 9:00 a.m.

I.

THE INDICTMENT

Mr. Asuncion-Diaz is charged in a two-count indictment with: (1) importation of marijuana; and (2) possession of marijuana with intent to distribute.

II.

MR. ASUNCION-DIAZ IS ENTITLED TO DISCOVERY

This motion is not limited to those items that the prosecutor knows of, but rather includes all discovery that is in the custody, control, care, or knowledge of any "closely related investigative [or other] agencies", under United States v. Bryan, 868 F.2d 1032, 1036 (9th Cir. 1989). Mr. Asuncion-Diaz moves for discovery of the following:

(1) Mr. Asuncion-Diaz' Statements. Under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16
(a)(1)(A) a defendant is entitled to disclosure of: all copies of any written or recorded statements made by the defendant; the substance of any statements

1 made by the defendant that the government intends to offer in evidence at trial; 2 any recorded testimony of the defendant before the grand jury; any response by 3 the defendant to interrogation; the substance of any oral statements that the 4 government intends to introduce at trial; any written summaries of the 5 defendant's oral statements contained in the handwritten notes of the 6 government agent; any response to any Miranda warnings that were given to 7 the defendant (See United States v. McElroy, 697 F.2d 459 (2d Cir. 1982)); and 8 any other statements by the defendant that are discoverable under Fed. R. Crim.
9 P.16(a)(1)(A). The Advisory Committee Notes as well as the 1991 amendments
10 to Rule 16 make it clear that the Government must reveal all of the defendant's
11 statements, whether oral or written, regardless of whether the Government
12 intends to introduce those statements at trial;

13 (2) Reports of Scientific Tests or Examinations. Pursuant to Fed. R.
14 Crim. P.16(a)(1)(D), Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests the reports of all tests and 15 examinations conducted upon any evidence in this case. This request includes 16 any financial or other data that has been examined, or tabulated, or otherwise 17 tested;

18 (3) Brady Material. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests all documents, 19 statements, agents' reports, and tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on 20 the issue of guilt and/or which affects the credibility of the government's case.
21 Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. § 83 (1963). Impeachment as well as exculpatory
22 evidence falls within Brady's definition of evidence favorable to the accused.
23 United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97
24 (1976).

25 (4) Any Information that May Result in a Lower Sentence under the 26 United States Sentencing Guidelines (U.S.S.G.). As discussed above, this 27 information is discoverable under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). This 28

1 request includes any information that could affect any base offense level or 2 specific offense characteristic under Chapter Two of the U.S.S.G. Also included
3 in this request is any information relevant to a Chapter Three adjustment, a 4 determination of the defendant's criminal history, or any other application of the 5 U.S.S.G.;

6 (5) The Defendant's Prior Record. Evidence of prior record is 7 available pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P.16(a)(1)(B);

8 (6) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. Evidence of prior similar acts is 9 discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P.16(a)(1)(C) and Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and 609.
10 In addition, under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b), "upon request of the accused, the 11 prosecution . . . shall provide reasonable notice in advance of trial . . . of the 12 general nature . . ." of any evidence the government proposes to introduce under 13 Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) at trial. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests that such notice be 14 given eight weeks before trial in order to give the defense time to adequately
15 investigate and prepare for trial;

16 (7) Evidence Seized. Evidence seized as a result of any search, either
17 warrantless or with a warrant, is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P.16(a)(1)(C);

18 (8) Request for Preservation of Evidence. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz
19 specifically requests that any physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or 20 otherwise put out of the possession, custody, or care of the government and 21 which relates to the prosecution in this case be preserved. This request includes, 22 but is not limited to, any "dispatch" or other tapes, samples used to run any 23 scientific tests, and any evidence seized from any third party. It is requested
24 that the government be ordered to question all the agencies and individuals 25 involved in the prosecution and investigation of this case to determine if such 26 evidence exists, including disputed tapes, and if it does exist, to inform those 27 parties to preserve any such evidence;

28

1 (9) Tangible Objects. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests, under Fed. R.
 2 Crim. P. 16(a)(2)(C), the opportunity to inspect and copy as well as test, if 3 necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including photographs, 4 books, papers, documents, photographs, of building or places or copies of 5 portions thereof that are material to the defense or intended for use in the 6 government's case-in-chief, or were obtained from or belong to the defendant;

7 (10) Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests any 8 evidence that any prospective government witness is biased or prejudiced 9 against the defendant, or has a motive to falsify or distort his or her testimony.
 10 Pennsylvania v. Ritchie, 480 U.S. 39 (1987); United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d
 11 1197 (9th Cir. 1988). Such evidence can include prior statements, business
 12 dealings, or actions;

13 (11) Impeachment Evidence. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests any evidence 14 that any prospective government witness has engaged in any criminal act, 15 whether or not resulting in a conviction, and whether any witness has made a 16 statement favorable to the defendant. See Fed. R. Evid. 608, 609 and 613. Such 17 evidence is discoverable under Brady v. Maryland, supra. See, United States v.
 18 Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988) (witness' prior record); Thomas v. United 19 States, 343 F.2d 49 (9th Cir. 1965) (evidence that detracts from a witness' 20 credibility);

21 (12) Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness.
 22 Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests any evidence that any prospective witness is under 23 investigation by federal, state or local authorities for any criminal conduct.
 24 United States v. Chitty, 760 F.2d 425 (2d Cir.) cert. denied, 474 U.S. 945 (1985);

25 (13) Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to 26 Communicate, or Truth Telling. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests any evidence, 27 including any medical or psychiatric report or evaluation, tending to show that

1 any prospective witness' ability to perceive, remember, communicate, or tell the 2 truth is impaired. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz also requests any evidence that a witness 3 has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance, or has ever been an 4 alcoholic. United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988); Chavis v. North
 5 Carolina, 637 F.2d 213, 224 (4th Cir. 1980);

6 (14) Witness Addresses. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests the name and last
 7 known address of each prospective government witness. See United States v.
 8 Napue, 834 F.2d 1311 (7th Cir. 1987); United States v. Tucker, 716 F.2d 576 (9th 9 Cir. 1983) (failure to interview government witnesses by counsel is ineffective); 10 United States v. Cook, 608 F.2d 1175, 1181 (9th Cir. 1979) (defense has equal right 11 to talk to witnesses). Mr. Asuncion-Diaz also requests the name and last known 12 address of every witness to the crime or crimes charged (or any of the overt acts 13 committed in furtherance thereof) who will not be called as a government
 14 witness. United States v. Cadet, 727 F.2d 1453 (9th Cir. 1984);

15 (15) Name of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant. Mr. Asuncion-
 16 Diaz requests the name of any witness who made an arguably favorable 17 statement concerning the defendant or who could not identify him or who was 18 unsure of his identity, or participation in the crime charged. Jackson v.
 19 Wainwright, 390 F.2d 288 (5th Cir. 1968); Chavis v. North Carolina, 637 F.2d 213,
 20 223 (4th Cir. 1980); Jones v. Jago, 575 F.2d 1164, 1168 (6th Cir.), cert. denied, 439
 21 U.S. 883 (1978); Hudson v. Blackburn, 601 F.2d 785 (5th Cir. 1979), cert. denied, 22 444 U.S. 1086 (1980);

23 (16) Statements Relevant to the Defense. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests 24 disclosure of any statement that may be "relevant to any possible defense or 25 contention" that he might assert. United States v. Bailleaux, 685 F.2d 1105 (9th
 26 Cir. 1982);

27
 28

1 (17) Jencks Act Material. The defense requests pre-trial production of 2 all Jencks material to expedite cross-examination and to avoid lengthy recesses
 3 during trial. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz asserts that a verbal acknowledgment that 4 "rough" notes constitute an accurate account of the witness' interview is 5 sufficient for the report or notes to qualify as a statement under §3500(e)(1).
 6 Campbell v. United States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-92 (1963). In United States v.
 7 Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991), the Ninth Circuit held that when an agent
 8 goes over interview notes with the subject of the interview the notes are then 9 subject to the Jencks Act;

10 (18) Giglio Information. Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S.
 11 150 (1972), Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests all statements and/or promises, express
 12 or implied, made to any government witnesses, in exchange for their testimony 13 or other assistance in this case, and all other information that could arguably be 14 used for the impeachment of any government witnesses;

15 (19) Personnel Records of Government Officers. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz
 16 requests all citizen complaints and other related internal affairs documents 17 involving any of the law enforcement officers who were involved in the 18 investigation of him, pursuant to Pitchess v. Superior Court, 11 Cal. 3d 531, 539
 19 (1974). Because of the sensitive nature of these documents, defense counsel will 20 not be able to procure them from any other source;

21 (20) Government Examination of Law Enforcement Personnel Files.
 22 Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests that the government examine the personnel files 23 and any other files within its custody, care or control, or which could be 24 obtained by the government, for all testifying witnesses, including testifying 25 officers. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests that these files be reviewed by the 26 government attorney for evidence of perjurious conduct or other like 27 dishonesty, or any other material relevant to impeachment, or any information

1 that is exculpatory, pursuant to its duty under United States v. Henthorn, 931
2 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991). The obligation to examine files arises by virtue of the 3 defense making a demand for their review: The Ninth Circuit in Henthorn
4 remanded for in camera review of the agents' files because the government
5 failed to examine the files of agents who testified at trial. This Court should 6 therefore order the government to review all such files for all testifying 7 witnesses and turn over any material relevant to impeachment or that is 8 exculpatory prior to trial;

9 21. Notice and a Written Summary of Any Expert Testimony

10 Under Rule 16(a)(1)(E), "[a]t the defendant's request, the government shall 11 disclose to the defendant a written summary of testimony the government
12 intends to use under Rules 702, 703 or 705 of the Federal Rules of Evidence
13 during its case-in-chief at trial. This summary must describe the witness'
14 opinions, the basis and the reasons therefore, and the witness' qualifications."
15 Mr. Asuncion-Diaz specifically requests the government give them a written 16 summary and notice of any expert testimony that the government intends to 17 introduce. This request includes any government agent who will testify to any 18 opinion.

19 22. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz also specifically requests that the government be 20 ordered to give the defense access to his government "A" file, which will likely 21 contain evidence that is material to Mr. Asuncion-Diaz' defense in this matter.
22 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(2)(C).

II.

MR. ASUNCION-DIAZ' STATEMENTS SHOULD BE SUPPRESSED

Discovery in this matter is incomplete. However, the Supreme Court has held that the prosecution may not use statements, whether exculpatory or inculpatory, stemming from a custodial interrogation of the defendant unless it demonstrates the use of procedural safeguards effective to secure the privilege against self-incrimination. Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436, 444 (1966).

This Court must first examine whether Mr. Asuncion-Diaz was in custody when he was questioned; then it must determine if any questioning constituted interrogation. If this Court determines that Mr. Asuncion-Diaz was subjected to custodial interrogation, then it must determine if the government's agents complied fully with Miranda's dictates.

1. Mr. Asuncion-Diaz Was In Custody When He Was Questioned.

Custody is defined in the Miranda context as a situation in which the suspect reasonably believes he is not free to leave. United States v. Estrada-Lucas, 651 F.2d 1261, 1265 (9th Cir. 1980). In other words, a person is in custody if he has been arrested or otherwise deprived of his freedom of action in any significant way. See Orozco v. Texas, 394 U.S. 324, 327 (1969).

Mr. Asuncion-Diaz was arrested at the Calexico Port of Entry and not free to leave at the time he made his statement. He was placed in an interrogation room and questioned by agents. Any argument that he was not in custody would be meritless.

2. Agents Interrogated Mr. Asuncion-Diaz When They Interviewed Him At The Port of Entry.

The second prong of the Miranda test is interrogation. The definition of interrogation was established in Rhode Island v. Innis, 446 U.S. 291 (1980): words or actions by law enforcement officers "reasonably likely to elicit an incriminating

1 response." This court should look to the context of the questioning to determine
 2 whether an incriminating response was sought. For example, routine questioning
 3 about biographical information has been held to be interrogation when the questions
 4 are asked by Border Patrol agents who suspect the target of their questions of being a
 5 deported alien. United States v. Gonzalez-Sandoval, 894 F.2d 1043, 1047 (9th Cir. 1990);
 6 United States v. Equiha-Juarez, 851 F.2d 1222, 1225-27 (9th Cir. 1988).

7 The agents' report clearly indicates that agents initiated the interview and 8 questioned Mr. Asuncion-Diaz fully about his knowledge of the drugs found in the 9 trailer he was pulling when he entered the Port of Entry. Questions about his 10 knowledge of the marijuana found in the trailer were clearly "reasonably likely to elicit
 11 an incriminating response". The second part of the Miranda has been satisfied.

12 3. The Government Must Show It Complied With Miranda
 13 Before Interrogating Mr. Asuncion-Diaz

14 In deciding Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436 (1966), the United States Supreme 15 Court recognized that custodial interrogation presents such a serious threat to accused
 16 persons' Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination that it directed law
 17 enforcement officers to take great pains to protect those rights. Thus, government
 18 agents must show that they warned Mr. Asuncion-Diaz of their full panoply of rights 19 regarding interrogation before any custodial interrogation begins.

20 4. The Government Must Prove That All Of Mr. Asuncion-
 21 Diaz' Statements Were Voluntary Before They May Be 22 Admitted Into Evidence.

23 Even when the procedural safeguards of Miranda have been satisfied, a 24 defendant in a criminal case is deprived of due process of law if his conviction is 25 founded, in whole or in part, upon an involuntary confession. Jackson v. Denno, 378
 26 U.S. 368, 387 (1964). The government bears the burden of proving that a confession is 27
 28

1 voluntary by a preponderance of the evidence. Lego v. Twomey, 404 U.S. 477, 483
2 (1972).

A statement must be the product of a rational intellect and free will to be voluntary. Blackburn v. Alabama, 361 U.S. 199, 208 (1960). In determining whether a defendant's will was overborne, the totality of the circumstances must be considered. Schneckloth v. Bustamonte, 412 U.S. 218, 226 (1973). A confession is deemed involuntary whether coerced by physical intimidation or psychological pressure. Townsend v. Sain, 372 U.S. 293, 307 (1962). It must not be extracted by any sort of threats of violence, nor obtained by any direct or implied promises, however slight, nor by the exertion of any improper influence. United States v. Tingle, 658 F.2d 1332, 1335 (9th Cir. 1981).

LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER MOTIONS

14 Counsel for Mr. Asuncion-Diaz requests leave to file further motions as 15 appropriate in this matter.

IV.

CONCLUSION

18 Mr. Asuncion-Diaz asks this Court to grant his motion for discovery and 19 suppression of his post-arrest statements, and also grant him leave to file further 20 motions.
